ACCIDENT ON THE P. W. & KY. — There came very near being a serious accident to the P. W. & Ky. road at the switch in the vicinity of the Superior machine shops. At 7 o'clock yesterday morning the engine, with a caboose car in front, which contained some sixty laborers, started northward. The switch, which has no provision for fastening it, had either been careleasly left open or else had been maliciously misplaced. The consequence was that the caboose left the track, plunging down over the bank, which, at the point named, is quite steep. Fortunately the coupling held fast, and as the engine was moving slowly it readily came to a halt, and all the men escaped without injury. As soon as the coupling was loosed the car rolled down the embankment, turning over three times, and was badly broken on the pickets which protect the wagon road leading from the river to the Superior Works. Three Men Drownen.—Last evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, a messenger arrived in the city from Short Creek, seeking a Justice of the Peace, to hold an inquest on the bodies of two men who were drowned in the Ohio river just above Portland. He was directed to Justice Phillips, of Clay disrict, and within a few moments that of cial and Constable Exley were mounted and er route for Short Creek. They found the roads in a terrible condition, but arrived at their destination in due time, chilled to the marrow by the frosty air. Here they learned that the casualty had occurred about a mile and a half further up the river, in Brooke county, and as it was already quite late they resolved to go no further, and returned home, arriving in the city about 10 clock this morning. At Short Creek, however, they learned some additional particulars of the drowning. It seems that Martin Coyle, a section boss on the P.
